

Jon Lane
Supervisory Biologist

Education:

1988 – BS Biology, Marymount University

1996 – MAg, International Development Economics, Colorado State University

Work Experience:

1988-1991 – Aquaculture - Peace Corps, Zaire

1991-1994 – Fisheries Biologist – US Fish and Wildlife Service, Jackson, WY and Kalispell, MT

1996-1997 – Agro-forestry – Peace Corps, Cameroon

1998-2000 – Biologist – US Army Corps of Engineers, Clewiston, FL

2000-January 2013 – Biologist – Invasive Species Management Branch, US Army Corps of Engineers, Jacksonville, FL

February 2013 – Present – Chief, Invasive Species Management Branch, USACE, Jacksonville District

Jon is Jacksonville District's Liaison Officer to the Florida Department of Emergency Management and he was a member of the emergency response team for Hurricanes George, Irene, Charlie, Ivan, Francis and Wilma.